

I think you should not waste you time and money (or is it OUR) money on something like this. I think you should worry about the local broadcasters and their vulgar comments--I am not referring to Howard Stern-or anyone the like or Howard Stern. I just don;t listen--what I am talking about is the local New York stations that just keep pushing it. I have been in my car and have repeatedly heard the A word and the B word. Since when has this been acceptable??????There was one tim ein particular U was lesteing to WKTU (103.5) and they were discussing the train accident (LIRR)--as a "joke" someone called in and kept saying the train was butt (f----) --duringthe f word it was beeped.... They must have said it about 10 times. I have a 9 yr old boy-thank God he was not in the car at the time---I would have had to change the channel. I was enraged---I called them up and gave them a peice of my mind. They apologized and said it was a joke. A JOKE!!! Are they CRAZY????????!!!!!!!!!!!!?????????

Who do these radio stations think they are.

I have opted not to listen to them and use XM radio--I don'twant to hear the nonsense.

We need to have a choice--my choice is to listen to XM--which means I need local weather and news----

Please---spend your time, energy and MY money to worry about things like this---you need to BAN FOWL LANGUAGE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
